

Elizabeth Sloane

Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy

Overview

Over recent years, there has been increasing recognition of the way in which children, young people and vulnerable adults can be at risk of discrimination, neglect, abuse and exploitation by those who are in positions of trust and power over them, including through international development activities.

As a result, there has been a significant increase in the efforts made by Elizabeth Sloane (ES) to ensure that no harm results from the contact their employees, volunteers and other representatives have with their target populations or communities.

Through their work, Elizabeth Sloane employees, employees of partner organisations and volunteers may engage with young people and vulnerable adults either directly or indirectly.

ES recognises it has an obligation to put in place all reasonable safeguarding measures to ensure, as far as possible, the safety and protection of children, young people and vulnerable adults, including those with whom we work and those in the communities where Elizabeth Sloane work is undertaken.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy and associated procedures is to provide clarity to ALL on how they should engage with children, young people and vulnerable adults when working for, on behalf of, or in partnership with Elizabeth Sloane. It is also to help us make sure that employees, volunteers and other representatives are protected.

It is intended to help us to have a common understanding of safeguarding issues, develop good practice across the diverse and complex areas in which we operate and thereby increase accountability in this crucial aspect of our work.

This policy constitutes Elizabeth Sloane's global policy. Whilst it is recognized that local legislation may vary from country to country, this policy identifies our minimum standards and may exceed the requirements of local legislation.

Any breach of this policy will be treated as a disciplinary matter, which may result in immediate termination of employment or contract, withdrawal of volunteer status, and reporting to the police, relevant regulatory authority or other body.

Scope

This policy is mandatory for all Elizabeth Sloane employees worldwide. For the purposes of this policy, 'employee' is defined as anyone who works for or on behalf of Elizabeth Sloane, either in a paid or unpaid capacity. This therefore includes directly employed staff, trustees, contractors, employees and volunteers of sub contractors, agency workers, consultants, volunteers, interns and all visitors to Elizabeth Sloane work programmes and offices.

It also covers implementing partners whom we fund, and who we expect to work under the policy as a condition of their involvement with Elizabeth Sloane.

This policy demonstrates how Elizabeth Sloane will meet its legal obligations and reassure volunteers, employees, partners and members of the public:

1. On what they can expect Elizabeth Sloane to do to protect and safeguard vulnerable people.
2. That they are able to safely voice any concerns through an established procedure.
3. That all reports of abuse or potential abuse are dealt with in a serious and effective manner.
4. That there is an efficient recording and monitoring system in place.
5. That employees, volunteers, sub contracted agencies and partners receive appropriate induction on safeguarding.
6. That a robust 'safe' recruitment procedure is in place.

There are additional procedures in place that apply to those that work or have contact with, either directly or indirectly, children, young people or vulnerable adults or who live in communities alongside them.

Policy Statement

Elizabeth Sloane has zero tolerance against abuse and exploitation of vulnerable people. Elizabeth Sloane also recognises that safeguarding is everyone's responsibility and that it has an obligation to put in place reasonable measures to ensure, as far as possible, the safety and wellbeing of vulnerable people with whom we work and those in the communities in which we live.

Elizabeth Sloane works to the following key principles to protect vulnerable people:

Everyone has an equal right to protection from abuse and exploitation regardless of age, race, sex, sexual orientation, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy or having a child, gender reassignment, language, religion, political or other opinion, national, ethnic or social origin, property, disability, birth or other status.

The best interests of the vulnerable person are paramount and shall be the primary consideration in our decision making.

Elizabeth Sloane will take responsibility to meet our obligations regarding our duty of care towards vulnerable people, and take action where we believe that a child, young person or vulnerable adult is at risk or is actually harmed.

Elizabeth Sloane will ensure that employees and volunteers are inducted in our Safeguarding Standards.

Elizabeth Sloane will ensure that all partners are informed and in compliance with our Safeguarding Standards. When working with or through partners or sub contracted agencies, Elizabeth Sloane will ensure that their safeguarding procedures are consistent and in line with the principles and approaches set out in this policy.

Elizabeth Sloane recognises that an element of risk exists, and while we may never be able to totally remove this, we need to do all we can to reduce it or limit its impact.

Elizabeth Sloane respects confidentiality and has a responsibility to protect sensitive personal data. Information should only be shared and handled on a need to know basis, that is, access to the information must be necessary for the conduct of one's official duties. Only individuals who have legitimate reasons to access the information are allowed to receive it.

Elizabeth Sloane to monitoring the implementation of the safeguarding policy. This policy will be reviewed every three years and earlier if necessary.

Cultural sensitivity; Elizabeth Sloane seeks always to work in ways which are culturally sensitive and that respect the diverse nature of the people we work with. We recognise that there are many different ways of thinking and taking care of vulnerable people and making sure they are protected. It is acknowledged that protecting these groups of individuals and being culturally sensitive can be a difficult balancing act, especially given the situation in many of the countries where we work. As an global organisation, we endorse the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child general principle, that all the rights guaranteed by it must be available to all children without discrimination; and article 19 which accords equal rights to protection for children from abuse. Every child matters everywhere in the world. Culture must not be used as an excuse to abuse children, young people or vulnerable adults.

All employees, volunteers, consultants, agency staff, sub contractors, partner organisations and visitors are obliged to follow this policy and maintain an environment that prevents exploitation and abuse and which encourages reporting of breaches of this policy using the appropriate procedures.

Minimum Standards

Where employees or volunteers are contracted by other employers, or when working with partners, sub contracted agencies, Elizabeth Sloane will brief them on our safeguarding policy and ask for information on how the organisation works to protect vulnerable people and ensure that they meet our Safeguarding Standards.

Social Media

Elizabeth Sloane has a policy regarding the media and the use of actual names, images, including photographs and recordings (the 'Social Media Policy'). This should be applied in all situations. Specifically relating to protection of children, young people and vulnerable adults, we will:

Use names and images of children, young people or vulnerable adults which are respectful and not expose them to further vulnerability (not degrading or showing sexual images of children naked or partially clothed).

Reproduce images and use names of children only where we have the written permission of their parents / guardians using a consent form (Appendix 2).

Reproduce images and use names of young people and vulnerable adults only where we have their written permission or that of their parents/guardians, whichever is the most suitable.

Make clear to vulnerable people and their families that agreement to providing information or images is not a condition of involvement in ELIZABETH SLOANE activities and programmes.

Inform employees, volunteers and partners about the ELIZABETH SLOANE policy in relation to the use of technology, and understand that they must not use this technology for the purpose of accessing, producing or distributing any information or violent or sexual images that are harmful to vulnerable people. This includes adult pornography.

Ensure that Elizabeth Sloane has a format for carrying out and implementing risk assessments at all levels of the organisation.

Train and support the designated safeguarding officers in their work and in any action they may need to take in order to protect vulnerable people.

Raising and responding to concerns

Elizabeth Sloane places a mandatory obligation on all employees, volunteers, contractors and partners to report concerns, suspicions, allegations and incidents which indicate actual or potential abuse or exploitation vulnerable people or which suggests this policy may have in any other way been breached. It is not the responsibility of the employees to decide whether or not abuse has taken place, however, concerns should be raised with an individual's line manager, functional lead or a designated safeguarding officer who will initiate the procedure for dealing with suspected or actual incidents of abuse.

Designated Safeguarding Officers are responsible for ensuring that the reporting procedure is followed so that suspected or actual cases of abuse are responded to appropriately and consistently, and referred to the relevant statutory authority.

To ensure that all such situations are handled appropriately and effectively:

Reports must be made, and decisions and actions taken (For details, refer to Managing Safeguarding Concerns)

Elizabeth Sloane is not an investigative authority. It is essential that referrals are made to the relevant law enforcement agency to ensure that appropriate protection and support is given to the vulnerable individual, and that any evidence is collected in accordance with the law.

All sensitive and personal data must be kept confidential (including the names of anyone who makes a report of abuse), and be shared on a strictly 'need to know basis', that is, access must be necessary for the conduct of one's official duties.

Where a Elizabeth Sloane employee is the subject of an investigation, the lead designated safeguarding officer will lead the case.
